This week's speakers – Thursday, October 9

Preserving Polish Heritage One Dish a Time. Northern Virginia award-winning cookbook authors, Peter and Laura Zeranski, will share tales of their adventures from the National Book Festival to the Polish Embassy. You'll hear about the inspiration behind their mission to win over palates nationwide with tantalizing recipes for Polish cuisine. Their most recent title, Polish Classic Desserts, has won the 2013 Gourmand Award's Best Eastern European Cookbook in the United States. It is a sweet compliment to the husband-and-wife team's previous collaboration, Polish Classic Recipes.

At last week's meeting

Speaker: Technology innovator John Carney described his newest effort, MARi, which aims to pull together the mass of data available in today's world in an organized and accessible way for students, helping them realize that "anything is possible."

Guests: Visiting Crystal City/Pentagon Rotarian Pete Anderson (who is also our Area TRF Coordinator) came to publicize his club's major annual fundraiser, the Top Golf Challenge on October 18 – See the club's website www.pentagonrotary.org, for details. Also David Sutfin, who has been nominated by President Gary Long as our newest member.

Next week's speaker: John Doyle, author, partner at Doyle McDonald, expert on communications in the modern world, will discuss his new book focused on "how to tell your organization's story."

Please consider the following

“Monte Carlo Night” is Nov. 7th- by now, we hope everyone has his/her tickets, and has made plans not just to attend with your guests, but to devote some time that evening in a volunteer role. Now, it’s time for members to line up those sponsorships, donations, and auction items. We need everyone participating fully to make this event, our main fundraiser for next year’s service projects, a success. More advice, information, and the necessary forms will be distributed again this week.

See these members to get involved:

- Kim Durand, to volunteer
- Steve Klemp – to buy tickets
- Gary Long – to submit auction items
- Joe Lott – to buy or submit sponsorships

Sign on to Amazon.com to take advantage of their new "Amazon Smile" program by which you can designate The Rotary Foundation (or one of many other charities like AAH, for example) to receive .5 percent of your "qualified purchases." Check it out at <http://smile.amazon.com>, or search “smile.”

Rotarians In The News! We hope you saw last week’s Arlington Sun-Gazette, with members Walter Webdale and Libby Garvey on the front page, and Robert Martinson on page 4. Some clubs might assess a “fine” for that, but we’ll settle for some generous happy dollars for AREF!

ARC Youth Service Chair Kim Durand briefed us this week on the very active schedule of the Interact Club we sponsor at Washington-Lee HS. They’ll be joining us for some of our upcoming community efforts, and let’s see what we can do to help them out.
