Chartered July 4, 1929 – Now In Our 85th Year

This week John P. Richardson will update the club on the current activities of the Arlington Historical Society

John P. Richardson divided a 40-year career between the non-profit sector and the U.S. government, focusing on the Palestine problem and the Muslim World. A graduate of Williams College with an M.A. from George Washington University, he was President of American Near East Refugee Aid (ANERA) and the Center for Middle East Policy. Later, as an operations officer with the Central Intelligence Agency, he served in Pakistan, Jordan, and Indonesia before retiring in 2005. Author of a book on the West Bank and Gaza, he has recently completed a biography of Gov. Alexander R. Shepherd (1835-1902) of the District of Columbia. Mr. Richardson is president of the Arlington Historical Society, secretary of the Association of Oldest Inhabitants of the District of Columbia (AOI), and a director of the Arlington Committee of 100 and ANERA. He is a member of the Historical Society of Washington and Cosmos Club and lives with his wife in Arlington, Virginia.

This week there will also be a board meeting at 11:30am at the Washington Golf and Country Club immediately prior to our luncheon. All are welcome to attend.

Last week

Scott McCaffrey, editor of the Sun Gazette newspaper group, addressed the club. New members Kelli Lesser and Kevin Baumb were inducted into the club. Adam Cichon and Mohamed Boraie were attended as guests of the club.
