Madeline Templeton "Pedaling for Affordable Housing"

Madeline Templeton is a lifelong Arlington resident as well as a 2014 graduate of The College of William & Mary, majoring in Public Policy and minoring in Sociology. She is a 2015 Route Leader for Bike & Build, an organization that gets young people directly involved in the affordable housing cause through cross-country and regional cycling trips. In 2014, Madeline was hit by a car and injured while riding on a trip with Bike & Build. After several months of recovery, she was inspired to try a second attempt at a cross-country ride, this time as a Route Leader. Until the trip starting in June, Madeline is substitute teaching for Arlington County Public Schools.

Last Week Colleen Pelar presented her talk - Facing Fear, Finding Freedom. She explained how one doesn't have to make major changes in their behavior to feel more confident.

Langston HS Cont. Ed. is a small program located between the McDonald's and Heidelberg Bakery on Lee Highway that catches the students who do not (for whatever reason) thrive in a traditional high school setting. For the past three years its students have had the opportunity to visit various Virginia universities and this exposure has inspired them to further expand their education. In fact, from a previous trip to University of Virginia (UVA), two of their students were so inspired they applied to UVA and were accepted. They are currently both studying medicine with goals to become doctors and several other former students are now attending Old Dominion University (ODU), Norfolk State University (NSU), Virginia State University (VSU), Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) and Christopher Newport

University. In the past, Langston was supported by the Arlington Community Foundation and the Office of Minority Achievement of Arlington Public School. This support that provided transportation is no longer available due to budget cuts and shortfalls and program restrictions so they need raise a total of $1,800 to pay for this year's college tour bus trip scheduled for May 20, 2015. Our club does not have funds allocated to support this out of its AREF account, but some members have already pledged personal donations and we hope others will consider doing the same. All checks should be made payable to Langston High School/Arlington Public Schools and given to Joe Lott in time to be submitted by April 30, 2015. Contact Cleveland James at cleveland.james@apsva.us or 703-228-5294 directly with any questions.
