This week's speaker is Nathalie Herrman

Nathalie W. Herrman writes a practical and inspirational daily blog, (<http://enlightenmentdaily.blogspot.com/>), has a recently published book entitled Daily Enlightenment: 365 Days of Spiritual Reflection, and a second book, The Art of Good Habits: Health, Love, Presence, and Prosperity being published in the fall of 2015. She is also the top trainer at Reston Sport & Health, a massage therapist, and Reiki master. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Boston University and has spent her life accumulating experience in the pursuit of optimal health and wellness in herself and others. Her work is the result of a genuine and enthusiastic love for life. Her goal is to live with grace and be of service. And her fundamental philosophical premise is that happiness is not a point-of-arrival, but a state of being that is each individual's responsibility to maintain.

Last week Korean Spirit & Culture Promotion Project (KSCPP), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that is dedicated to raising awareness of Korean history and culture in appreciation for the United State's support for Korea during the Korean War and in the years that followed, gave a complimentary presentation about the history and culture of Korea throughout the world including modern industry after Korean War.

May greeters are John Becker & Hugh Heishman
