THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER IS

Bob Dorr: “How my book got devoured: secret stuff about book, bookstores, book publishers and book writers.”

Bob Dorr is an author, an Air Force Veteran, and a retired Foreign Service officer. He will talk about how books are changing. If you enjoy stretching out on the sofa with a can't-put-it-down volume of prose, you'll want to know that the process of creating your book is changing rapidly. Bob will discuss the dynamic world of books and his experience in the trenches

Bob served in Liberia with club member Steve Klemp. He is also known for a weekly opinion column in Air Force Times newspaper and a monthly feature about Washington in Aerospace America magazine. Bob and his wife Young Soon live in Oakton with their Labrador retriever and have two grown sons with families.

Bob will have copies of a new aviation guidebook, “365 PLANES” available on a not-for-profit reduced price of $20 for anybody who wants one.
