Chartered July 4, 1929 – Now In Our 87th Year

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER IS

Victor Hoskins, Director of Economic Development for Arlington County
“The Way Forward: Diversifying the local economy of Arlington”

Victor Hoskins was appointed Director of Economic Development for Arlington County in January 2015. He brings more than 25 years of experience in economic development and executive leadership.

Mr. Hoskins came to Arlington from Prince George's County in Maryland, where he was the Deputy Chief Administrator for Economic Development and Public Infrastructure. In this role, he led efforts to bring a $123 million conference center and hotel at University of Maryland College Park.

Previously, M. Hoskins served as Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development for Washington D.C., where his achievements included the creation of 52,600 jobs through public private partnership projects and the groundbreaking and/or completion of 87 commercial/retail/hotel/residential projects totaling 7.5 billion in 3 years, including the Southwest Waterfront Project and City Center Project.

Mr. Hoskins holds a Master's Degree in City Planning: Real Estate Finance/Economic Development from MIT and a Bachelor of Arts, Cum Laude: Psychology/Urban Studies from Dartmouth College. He also studied Development Finance at Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government.

Last Week's Speaker:

Our Speaker last week was Janet Brown, 7610 District Governor. She attended our Board Meeting and then spoke to our club about some of our goals. She also gave some tips and strategies to increase membership and some ideas for fundraisers and keeping Rotary fun.
