Our Speaker This Week John Michael, Author

John Michael is a military historian/heraldist, photographer, and chronicler. His work photographing final honors at Arlington National Cemetery is world-renowned. John is a native of South River, NJ. He moved to the Washington DC area in 1994. He has utilized his photographic and creative talents to publish several books, including one on Arlington National Cemetery's final honors, and one on Ft. McNair, about which he spoke to us just two months ago. Today, we will hear the story of his first book in the Images of America series, about Ft. Myer, a civil-war era U.S. Army post that still defends our nation's capital.

Last Week

Last week was the club's annual fundraising gala, "Monte Carlo Night," held jointly with the Rotary Clubs of Dunn Loring, McLean, and Tysons Corner. A few snapshots below. Stay tuned for reports on proceeds.

NOVEMBER IS ROTARY FOUNDATION (TRF) MONTH.

As the calendar year draws to a close and you're considering your tax-deductible donations, please consider TRF too. Your contributions can not only do a lot of good, but over the years can cumulate to making you a Paul Harris Fellow.
