Chartered July 4, 1929 – Now In Our 88th Year

Midday Program at the WGCC - Thursday, March 9, 2017 Pete Anderson, District Chair for the TRF Annual Fund “The Rotary Foundation (TRF)”

The Rotary Foundation is key to what Rotary does around the world, and in our own District. It's also large, (somewhat) complex, and frequently changing, but it doesn't have to be a mystery. Come let Pete explain how our international foundation works, the importance of the Annual Fund in particular, and get your questions answered.

Last Week

Mary Beth Crosson and Joanne McCarty described the many ways their organization “Independent You” (www.independentyou.net) can assist seniors to prepare for and manage their affairs, remain independent and living in their own homes. They also offered useful advice on decluttering and downsizing.

Ray Hrabec Is ARC's Newest Member

In his 46 years in residential mortgages in Northern Virginia, Ray has been involved in nearly every facet of the business, including mortgage origination, underwriting, closing securitization and sale of mortgages in the secondary market. He has been an owner-operator of two local mortgage companies and a member of advisory boards with Norwest /Mortgage (now Wells Fargo) and Marine Midland Mortgage. Ray is currently a senior loan officer with the McLean office of EverBank Home Lending and is approved to originate mortgages in all 50 states. Nowadays, he divides his time between the NoVa area and Savannah Georgia. Ray was sponsored by President Shannon Prendergast.

Once A Rotarian, Always ...

Many members will remember former ARC member Parker Livingston, who just a few short years ago retired and moved to Rehoboth. Assistant Governor Joe Lott ran into Parker at the Multi-District President-Elect Training Seminar (PETS) this past weekend. Turns out Parker is the incoming President of the Rehoboth RC.
