Thursday, January 25 - Lunch Program at the WGCC, 12:15-1:30

Billy Cullipher – Classification Talk

This week, our most recent member, Billy Cullipher of Main Street Bank, will relate tales of his past and present in the traditional new-member “classification talk” that helps us get to know our new colleagues.

This photo was taken at our Christmas luncheon on December 14; Billy was inducted that same day.

Last Week

Tom Johnson, a US Marine Corps officer, a lawyer, and former US State Department employee, grew up in Evanston, IL, where his father was an educator. Tom’s motto might be: learn, adapt, and succeed. Joining the Marine Corps after college, and faced with the prospect of an assignment in Viet Nam, he successfully negotiated an alternative career path. The USMC agreed to send him to Harvard for a law degree. He pursued a career in aviation policy law after graduating, which abruptly ended when deregulation opened the skies for the airlines but closed the door on his career plans. Tom returned to the Marines before joining the US State Department. There, he continued his interest in transportation policy law. The US sent him overseas and to the UN to negotiate treaties on its behalf. Tom continued his Marine Corps career as a reserve officer. Now retired, Tom joined the Arlington Rotary Club this year. Tom is a proud father of four daughters, the youngest now in high school; his daughter Melissa joined us for lunch.

This Just In – Service Activity, January 29

We need at least 8 volunteers to help (probably packing or sorting food) at AFAC, 7 p.m., next Monday, January 29. Please contact Chelsi (dildinec@gmail.com).

Also Last Week

We had visitors from El Club Libertad Norteamerica, <http://www.clublibertadnorteamerica.com/> a non-profit organization that seeks to promote the spread of the Peruvian national dance, the marinera, throughout North America; to preserve the identity of the marinera as an expression of the Peruvian people; and to stimulate dance competitions among groups in North America (whose talents may be recognized in Peru as well). Our visitors, Lita Ali and Jossie Guthrie, described the essence of the marinera to us (want to learn more? See <https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Marinera>). They also presented a donation of $500 to ARC President David Sutfin and AREF President Sherry Barndollar Rock for the AREF scholarship fund.
