ROTARY: MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Wednesday, March 7 – The Arlington Rotary Happy Hour Pinzimini Bar, Westin Ballston Gateway, 6 – 8 PM

Thursday, March 8 - Lunch Program at the WGCC, 12:15-1:30 Chelsi Dildine, Member, Arlington Rotary “Classification Talk”

Chelsi Dildine is a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones Investments and she joined Arlington Rotary in mid-2016. She's been active in the club, doing some great work in making Wine Helps 2017 a success and currently working with John Becker on the club's Community Service programs. This week, it is Chelsi's turn to tell us a bit more about herself, her career, and her interests.

Last Week

Carla Fleming, CEO and founder of Pivoting Strategies, shared with us some of the ideas she developed over her 25 years of marketing and sales experience with IBM and other firms, and which she now applies to her own business clients to help them define what they need to know about their customers, and to give them ways to learn that info. Better information can result in more revenue but also can serve customers better.

Our Spring Fundraiser: Mala Tang – April 19, 6 – 9 PM

Rotarians, full details are now available on our spring fundraiser. Please mark your calendars now to attend, and check out the information on the flyer attached to this email. The cost is $55 per person, 15 is deductible on your taxes. We have a fresh venue* – the Mala Tang Restaurant, 3434 Washington

Blvd. in Arlington – and a new and different family-style menu comprising five first courses, six main dishes, and two desserts (again, the full menu can be viewed in the attached flyer). You can park free directly across the street (American Legion Hall). One thing that won't change is a festive, Rotary-fellowship evening of good food and most important, presentation of our scholarship winners for this year.
