Last Week's Meeting

Local restaurant owner (Cassatt's Kiwi Café and Bistro 360)

Art Hauptman shared some ups and downs of running a restaurant, including his encounters with Arlington County officials. He is also a consultant and writer on education financial aid and public funding of colleges. Art's survey of the members showed many had eaten at his restaurants. He is planning changes at Cassatt's, the older of the two. Art shared an interesting fact: loud restaurants increase sales. There's no hope of a quiet dinner eating out.

Also at the May 3 Meeting

A New Member! Welcome Stephen Silcox to the club. Steve was inducted last week. He is sponsored by Hugh Barton, and has the classification “International Development Consultant.” Steve lives on Edison St. in Arlington; add his email scsilcox@gmail.com to your contacts list.

Visitors from Brazil

Joining our meeting last week were Valter and Roberta Padulla of the Rotary Club of São Paulo Tatuapé. They presented us their club’s banner (that’s it there on the table) and received ours.
